TRANSLATION Matters

TRANSLATION MATTERS IN A BIG WAY

I am SO encouraged to see how much Bible translation matters to people from all walks of life. Naturally, as an organisation with a vision to see God's Word in EVERY language, translation matters to Wycliffe. But to see how much it matters to others is a testimony of how much people value the Word of God in their lives.

Why is this?

Actually, all the reasons why we depend on God's Word on a daily basis are found in the Bible. It is our daily portion of living 'bread' that nourishes and strengthens us for our day (Matthew 4:4). It's the light on our path, the lamp for our feet (Psalm 119:105). It's the mirror that shows us the condition of our heart (James 1:23). In short, the more we spend time 'eating' God's Word, and thinking about what it reflects to us, the more we find it to be alive and active in every detail of our lives (Hebrews 4:12).

Typically, we find that those who value the Bible in their own lives, are the ones who care about others having access to this treasure.In this edition of Translation Matters, we acknowledge the zeal of a team of cyclists - supported by an equally devoted team of intercessors and roadside supporters – going all-out to see God's Word, AVAILABLE, ALIVE, and ACTIVE, in every language.

Give momentum to the Bible Translation Movement by supporting Bible Man and team, as they carry the 'giant Bible' from start to finish over 94.7 km. Together, our prayer is to spread the knowledge of the glory of the Lord. May it soon cover the earth, 'as the waters cover the sea' (Habukkuk 2:14).
